CAPDM is pleased to announce that Michael Sine is the 2018 CAPDM Member of the Year!

Michael Sine has been a highly visible fixture of CAPDM for many years. Many will remember the outstanding job he performed as moderator of the NAFTA Debate at the 2018 Annual Conference.

He has consistently supported our signature events as an engaged participant. He has been a member of the Education Advisory Group and has been both the Chair and a member of the Annual Conference Planning Committee.

Michael has always contributed his vast experience and insights to the betterment of our association and this industry. Michael's tenure means that many in the industry have had the pleasure of meeting and interacting with him. Michael's passion and positive manner has touched many.

Congratulations Michael!
