Speaker Spotlight: A Canada-USA Health Check-Up

CAPDM has commissioned two formidable experts to present a thorough review of Canada - USA relations. CAPDM delegates can expect a lively debate between two current public policy powerhouses. With insights into the White House and 24 Sussex these two insiders will deliver a synopsis of the current state of affairs and a prognosis for the deep, powerful, and economic relationship that has now been thrown into question.

Maryscott (Scotty) Greenwood

Maryscott "Scotty" Greenwood is a Principal in Dentons' Public Policy and Regulation practice in Washington, DC. Ms. Greenwood is co-leader of the firm's US federal practice as well as the Canada/US Initiative and recognized as a thought-leader in the public policy field. Ms. Greenwood is the CEO of the Canadian-American Business Council and a frequent commentator on US-Canadian relations. She was recognized by The Hill Times as one of the "Most Influential People in Government and Politics" and as one of the "Top 100 People Influencing Canadian Foreign Policy" and a "Top 100 Lobbyist" in 2017.

Andrea van Vugt

Vice President, North America, Business Council of Canada

With nearly two decades of policy experience, Andrea leads the Council's work on North America, advising on bilateral and trilateral issues with the United States and Mexico. Formerly, as Chief of Staff to the Minister of International Trade, and Foreign Affairs and Trade Advisor to the Prime Minister, Andrea played an instrumental role concluding the Canada-Europe and Trans-Pacific Partnership trade negotiations. She has advised the Prime Minister and members of cabinet during more than 20 bilateral visits and summits around the world including G8, G20, North American Leaders' Summit, COP and NATO.
